

GRAYSON DUBOSE'S VOLLEYBALL CAMPS 2017

Code of Conduct

Grayson DuBose's Volleyball Camps 2017 has a strict code of conduct. This is to ensure that each participant attending the camp will have a safe and enjoyable time. Parents and participants must understand the rules associated with the code of conduct and agree to them by signing below.

Language

Each participant is expected to use clean, respectful language during the week. This includes conduct with other participants, clinicians, speakers, and directors.

Workshops and Activities

Each participant is to attend volleyball instructions and evening competition and arrive on time. Participants are not allowed to leave campus during the week except with camp clinicians or chaperoned by a qualified and designated camp staff member.

Cell Phones/Calling Home

We know participants want to stay in touch with family. Cell phones are permitted during the camp; however, we have the right to restrict the times they may be used. No cell phones are allowed at instruction times and evening competition. There are land line phones available for the participants to use. If they are calling long distance they will need a calling card. Participants may only talk on the telephone during free time or other designated times. No text messaging and/or cell phone use is permitted during instruction sessions.

Laws and Standards

Participants are expected to obey every law governing our land and uphold the standards of good citizenship. This includes no illegal substances, stealing, shoplifting or physically hurting others.
